1. Newly submitted claims 23-25 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: Bidding apparatus is distinct from the invention as originally presented.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 23-25 withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Patent 09/933,263 in view of Red Herring Article.

The applicant argues that Mottola does not teach or suggest a step of receiving at least one bid for the purchase of a security instrument, nor does Mottola employ a tradable security.

The applicant presumably argues that the secondary reference fails to provide this teaching. The applicant's arguments are not persuasive. The red herring article teaches of filing the securities with the SEC. Securities filed with the routinely traded in initial and secondary markets. The extent to which the securities are traded is a function of liquidity and demand. For at least these reasons, the action is deemed final.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3624

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
